Discover India, one tailor made journey at a time about

From the ethereal mountain plateaus of Ladakh, to the bustling markets of Jaipur; from the sacred temples of the holy city of Varanasi, to the majestic tigers in the jungle of Ranthambore - as many of you know, I have been lucky enough to call India my second home since I began specialising in bespoke travel nearly a decade ago. Based predominantly out of bustling Delhi, I work closely with my teams across India and take every opportunity to explore further afield to ensure I keep my finger on the pulse of the ever-changing travel landscape.

TAILOR-MADE TRAVEL

LADAKH

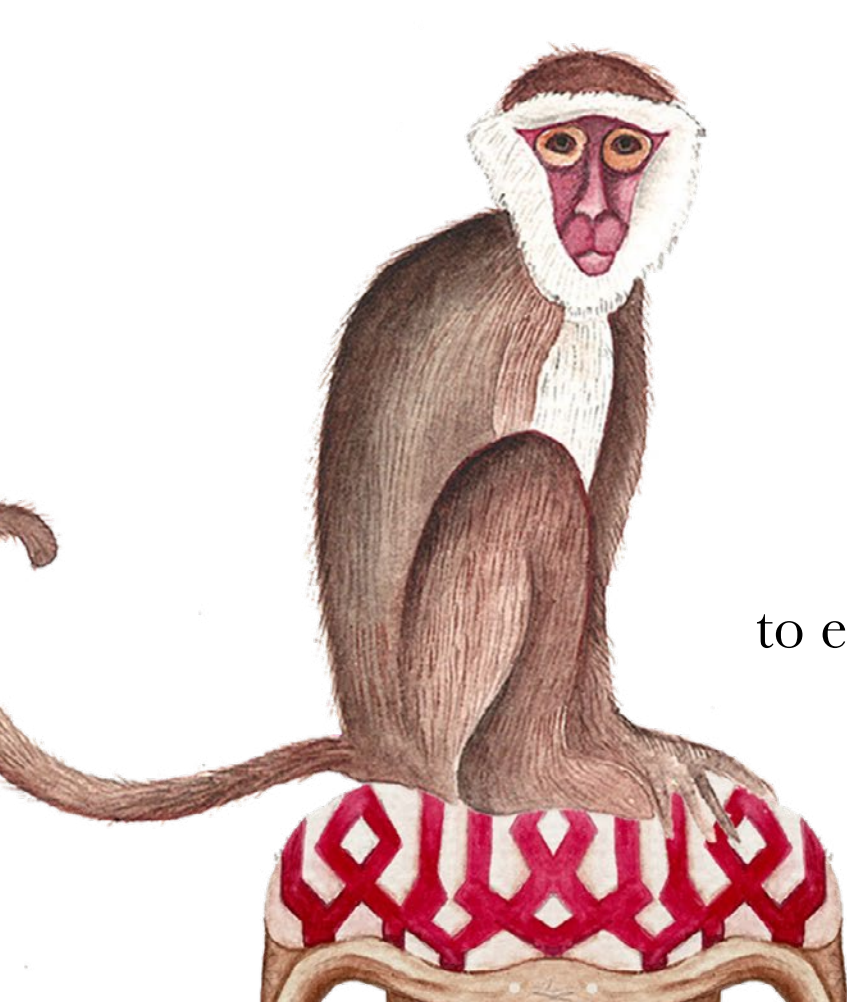

RAJASTHAN

MADHYA PRADESH

Would you like to share tea with Buddhist monks living in monasteries high in the Himalayas? perhaps witness a pooja on the mighty Ganges or watch endangered rhinos amble past your tent as you sip a delicious sundowner? Maybe you would just like to explore the markets and rifle through mounds of rainbow-coloured saris in Rajasthan?

Every trip I create is custom designed, utilising my first-hand experience and passion for travel in India in conjunction with your travel wishes. So whether you are you longing to see tigers stalking through the grasslands of Kanha National Park or sample spices in Kerala before returning to your houseboat, I am here to make that happen. Working with my wonderful in country team, I will be on hand for every step of your adventure - from initial calls to factor in each individual detail, through to meeting you upon arrival in India - I will ensure each day is breathtaking.
